Google

[redacted]

AI Mode | All | Web | News | Images | Videos | Shopp

Fort Worth Report
https://fortworthreport.org

Fort Worth's new EMS misses response time goals, records show

3 days ago — City's ambulance service aims to respond to emergency calls within 8 minutes as it takes over duties from MedStar.

Facebook · Fort Worth Report
10+ reactions · 2 days ago

Fort Worth's new EMS misses response time goals, records show

LifeCare Ambulance Misses Branch County Priority One Response Time Goal Again LifeCare Ambulance has failed to meet Branch County's priority one ...

Show all quick matches

Web Guide | Classic Search

Fort Worth's new EMS, launched in July 2025, has missed its goal of responding to 90% of emergency calls within 8 minutes; records show 90% of calls are responded to within 11:09 minutes, which is about 30 seconds slower than the former provider, MedStar.

Current Fort Worth EMS Response Time Performance

The new EMS aims for an 8-minute response time for 90% of calls, but currently achieves 11:09 minutes, which is slower than the previous provider.

Fort Worth Report
https://fortworthreport.org · 3 days ago

Fort Worth's new EMS misses response time goals, records show

Details how Fort Worth's new EMS, launched in July 2025, missed its goal of responding to 90% of emergency calls within 8 minutes; records show 90% of calls are responded to within 11:09 minutes, about 30 seconds slower than MedStar.

Facebook · Fort Worth Report
10+ reactions · 3 days ago

Fort Worth's new EMS misses response time goals, records show

Confirms Fort Worth's new EMS misses response time goals, as reported by Fort Worth Report.

Fort Worth EMS Performance Compared to MedStar

The new EMS exhibits slower 90th percentile response times compared to MedStar, though its median response times show improvement.

Facebook · NORTH TEXAS HOOD NEWS
2 reactions · 1 day ago

These times are about 30 seconds slower than those reported by ...

References an article stating Fort Worth's new EMS response times are about 30 seconds slower than MedStar, the former provider.

Flourish
https://flo.uri.sh

EMS Numbers compared to MedStar

Compares Fort Worth's July-Oct 2025 EMS response times, showing slower 90th percentile but faster median times than MedStar's estimated 2024 data.

Fort Worth EMS Response Time Data and Visualizations

Since July, Fort Worth's EMS has consistently been approximately 3 minutes slower than their 8-minute response time goal.

Flourish
https://flo.uri.sh

EMS Numbers

Confirms Fort Worth's EMS, launched in July, has consistently been around 11 minutes for 90th percentile response times, about 3 minutes slower than its 8-minute goal.

Historical Context: Fort Worth EMS Challenges and Changes

Historically, Fort Worth's previous EMS provider, MedStar, faced issues with insufficient resources and missed response time objectives, leading to a city-led transition to integrate EMS services within the Fort Worth Fire Department to improve efficiency.

Fort Worth City Hall (.gov)
https://www.fortworthtexas.gov

EMS

Discusses MedStar's insufficient resources and personnel in 2023 that led to missed response times, and the Fire Department's ongoing transition to improve them by up to 5.5 minutes.

NBC 5 Dallas-Fort Worth
https://www.nbcdfw.com · 2 years ago

Fort Worth's EMS system could see changes

Reports a study by Fitch and Associates found that MedStar's financial problems impacted its ability to deploy optimal resources, causing longer response times.

NBC 5 Dallas-Fort Worth
https://www.nbcdfw.com

Fort Worth emergency operations changing to improve response times

Details Fort Worth's plan to improve EMS response times by integrating services into the Fort Worth Fire Department, hoping to shave 5.5 minutes off response times.

Show more

Discussions on Fort Worth EMS and Potential Solutions

Community discussions and city initiatives explore how to improve emergency response, including the idea of the Fire Department running its own ambulance service and implementing AI-driven dispatch reforms.

Facebook · Quick community News
9 comments · 2 years ago

Should Fort Worth Fire Department have its own ambulance service ...

Discusses community perception of slow ambulance service response times in Fort Worth, debating if the Fire Department should establish its own ambulance service for improvement.

Fort Worth Report
https://fortworthreport.org · 5 months ago

Fort Worth takes steps to streamline 911 response time using AI ...

Describes strategies to improve 911 response times, including merging fire, EMS, and police dispatch services and using AI for non-emergency calls.

Headers and descriptions are AI generated and may include mistakes. Learn more Deeply analyzed 16 results, 12 selected.

Run expanded analysis

Ask and explore anything with the Google app

Try app

Results are not personalized

White Settlement, Texas - From your IP address

Update location

Dark theme: on | Help | Feedback

Privacy | Terms