Google

Fort Worth fire department will begin responding with MedSTAR staffed

All Mode | All | Web | News | Images | Videos | Shopping | More | Tools

Fort Worth Report
https://fortworthreport.org · 2025/11/25 · fort-worthe...

Fort Worth's new EMS misses response time goals, records ...

3 days ago — City's ambulance service aims to respond to emergency calls within 8 minutes as it takes over duties from MedStar.

Fort Worth Star-Telegram
https://www.star-telegram.com › local › article309397005

Fort Worth to finish transition to fire-based EMS by July 1

Jun 25, 2025 — The new EMS model will bring MedStar employees on board to serve as paramedics and emergency medical technicians on ambulances run by the Fort ...

Show all quick matches

Web Guide

Classic Search

The Fort Worth Fire Department officially took over all EMS services as of July 1, 2025, with MedStar dissolving and its employees merging into the Fire Department. This transition includes a new tiered system with both advanced life support (ALS) and basic life support (BLS) ambulances, which are staffed by EMTs.

Help improve Web Guide by providing feedback

Access Web Guide at any time via the Web tab.

Fort Worth EMS Transition to Fire Department

The Fort Worth Fire Department is integrating former MedStar EMTs and paramedics into its new EMS system, with the full transition for ambulance services taking effect by July 1, 2025, and includes new EMT positions and ambulances.

NBC 5 Dallas-Fort Worth
https://www.nbcdfw.com › ... › 3876133 · 5 months ago

MedStar merges with Fort Worth Fire to speed up emergency services

Confirms MedStar officially joined the Fort Worth Fire Department on July 1, 2025, consolidating EMS services to get patients help faster and establish the Fire Department as a transport agency.

Fort Worth Report
https://fortworthreport.org · 11 months ago

Fort Worth prepares to welcome MedStar workforce into fire ...

Explains Fort Worth's transition to a fire-based EMS system by integrating MedStar employees, creating 75 new EMT positions, and acquiring nine new ambulances, fully implemented by July 2025.

MedStar911
https://www.medstar911.org › News and Press Releases · 9 months ago

City, Firefighters Association OK adding EMS personnel to FWFD

Details the agreement to hire current MedStar EMTs and paramedics into the Fire Department for a new EMS program.

Fort Worth Star-Telegram
https://www.star-telegram.com › ... › fort-worth › article309397005 · 5 months ago

Fort Worth to finish transition to fire-based EMS by July 1

Confirms the Fort Worth Fire Department's transition to fire-based EMS by July 1, incorporating MedStar employees, including EMTs, into their ambulance services, though it doesn't specify staffing by one EMT.

Fort Worth Employes Retirement Fund
https://www.fwretirement.org

City, Firefighters Assoc. OK adding EMS personnel to FWFD

Details the agreement to integrate MedStar EMTs and paramedics into the Fort Worth Fire Department to launch a new EMS program, acknowledging it's an older agreement from late 2024.

Fort Worth Report
https://fortworthreport.org · 6 months ago

Fort Worth green-lights acceptance of MedStar assets, creates short ...

Details Fort Worth's formal acceptance of MedStar assets and the integration of its employees, including EMTs, into the Fire Department's new in-house EMS system, effective July 1, 2025.

YouTube · FOX 4 Dallas-Fort Worth
46k+ views · 5 months ago

Fort Worth Fire Department takes over MedStar ambulance

Confirms Fort Worth Fire Department officially took over ambulance services from MedStar on July 1st, integrating emergency medical services within city limits.

Fort Worth City Hall (.gov)
https://www.fortworthtexas.gov › departments › city-manager › ems

EMS

Confirms the Fort Worth Fire Department incorporated former MedStar employees, including EMTs and paramedics, into their EMS system in July 2025 following city council approvals.

Show less

Fort Worth Fire Department's New EMS Staffing Model

The Fort Worth Fire Department's EMS division will be staffed by single-role EMTs/Paramedics, not firefighters, and will continue system status staffing with MedStar employees transitioning over.

Facebook · MedStar EMS
100+ comments · 1 year ago

MedStar Mobile Healthcare Transition to Fort Worth Fire Department

Confirms the FWFD EMS division, effective July 1, 2025, will be staffed by single-role EMTs/Paramedics, not firefighters, continuing system status staffing with most current MedStar employees moving over.

Fort Worth EMS Merger and Takeover

The Fort Worth Fire Department officially took over MedStar's operations, making it responsible for the city's EMS needs, including the implementation of new radio communication protocols for the unified service.

FOX 4 News Dallas-Fort Worth
https://www.fox4news.com › news › fort-worth-takes-over-medstar · 5 months ago

Fort Worth Fire Department takes over MedStar ambulance services

Confirms Fort Worth Fire Department officially took over MedStar ambulance services as of July 2, 2025, now responsible for the city's EMS needs.

Spectrum News
https://spectrumlocalnews.com · 5 months ago

MedStar merges with Fort Worth Fire Department

Confirms MedStar merged with the Fort Worth Fire Department to create Fort Worth EMS, with Fort Worth EMS trucks now responding to 911 calls; however, it does not detail a one-EMT staffing model.

RadioReference.com Forums
https://forums.radioreference.com · 6 months ago

Fort Worth Fire Department Channel Assignment Changes.

Confirms the Fort Worth Fire Department took over EMS response from MedStar with a target completion date of July 1 and discusses new radio channel assignments for EMS calls, including EMS 8 and EMS 9.

Show more

Historical Context of Fort Worth EMS Changes

Early discussions in 2024 explored the Fort Worth Fire Department replacing MedStar with a fire-based EMS service, either civilian or sworn personnel-staffed. A reprioritization plan was implemented in March 2023 to narrow priority 1 calls and reduce non-life-threatening dispatches.

KERA News
https://www.keranews.org · 2 years ago

Fort Worth is considering four potential EMS models. Here's what ...

Outlines four EMS models considered in early 2024, including one where the fire department would replace MedStar and establish a fire-based EMS service staffed by civilians or sworn firefighters.

Fort Worth Report
https://fortworthreport.org · 3 years ago

'A battle between fire and MedStar.' Fort Worth firefighters, council ...

Explains MedStar's March 2023 reprioritization plan to narrow priority 1 call definitions, reducing fire department responses to non-life-threatening calls and improving response times for critical patients.

YouTube · City of Fort Worth
940+ views · 2 years ago

Ad Hoc Council Committee on Emergency Medical Response of ...

Discusses potential EMS models for Fort Worth, including a "fire department civilian model" with a $10.5 million cost allocation and potential fiscal benefits from consolidating the Communication Center.

Fort Worth City Hall (.gov)
https://www.fortworthtexas.gov › ... › 3-fire-staffing-study-update PDF · 3 years ago

City of Fort Worth, Texas

Outlines 2022 recommendations for the Fort Worth Fire Department to implement paramedic engine first responders in difficult-to-reach neighborhoods to improve paramedic delivery.

58 pages

Fort Worth EMS Performance Post-Transition

The newly transitioned Fort Worth EMS, operating under the fire department, has been missing its response time goals since July 2025, with calls often exceeding the target 8-minute response.

Fort Worth Report
https://fortworthreport.org · 3 days ago

Fort Worth's new EMS misses response time goals, records show

Details current EMS operations, including former MedStar employees (mostly EMTs) joining the fire department, a new city-operated dispatch system, and response time goals.

Facebook · Fort Worth Report
15+ reactions · 3 days ago

Fort Worth's new EMS misses response time goals, records show

Reports Fort Worth's new EMS misses response time goals, suggesting issues with service efficiency.

Other potentially useful results

The Fort Worth Fire Department is the exclusive licensed EMS Provider for out-of-hospital EMS within the City of Fort Worth, effective January 1, 2025.

MedStar911
https://www.medstar911.org PDF

Fort Worth Fire Department

Clarifies the Fort Worth Fire Department is the exclusive licensed EMS Provider for out-of-hospital services, effective January 1, 2025, and outlines permitting for private ambulance interfacility transportation.

9 pages

Headers and descriptions are AI generated and may include mistakes. Learn more Deeply analyzed 36 results, 24 selected. Run expanded analysis

Results are not personalized

Tarrant County, Texas · From your IP address · Update location

Help | Send feedback | Privacy | Terms